Who Lives In Alpha Annex?

Alpha Annex — What's that? Is there such a place on campus? While most of the campus lives in dorms, co-ops, or off campus, two of our fellow students are tucked away on the second floor of the Public Safety Office. Greg Cooney and Norm Yeater have been answering the college phone, paging safety, the health office, housing personnel and handling a variety of other emergency calls. Greg, a music therapy major from Baltimore, MD, will be graduating this coming December. While Norm, a religion/philosophy major, will be graduating in May. Once again, an Alpha Annex position will be open. But rest assured that whoever takes over for Norm will continue the traditional response of "Good Morning, Elizabethtown College".

As I look back over all the hours of hard work that has gone into this book, I am proud of the progress we have made. I stepped into this position not knowing all the ins and outs of a college yearbook production. With the help of Mr. Baylor, Terri Hoffman, Mike & Barb Gilroy and every staff member, I was able to get things rolling, slowly but surely. I also must thank Dr. Eugene Clemens and Dave Newcomer for their excellent photographic contributions.

The theme of Conestogan 1985 is a subtle one. It is expressed through the beautiful pictures of Elizabethtown College's people and places. These are two very important pieces of life here at E-town. At times, a subtle reminder is all one needs to be thankful.

To everyone involved in the creation of this memory, what a great job! I'll be looking for you next year!

This year's ETOWNIAN has come a long way!

Organization and planning has helped to produce an 8 page weekly.

And through student volunteers, the paper is completely laid out and designed in the office.

All photographic procedures are performed in our own dark room.

Advertising and story coverage has improved through better communication.

Record: 14-5-4

The Blue Jays concluded another fine season with a record of 14-5-4. The year was highlighted by a new record for shutouts (13) and the naming of E-town's Shannon Perry to the All-American Third Team. Honors were also given to Perry, Doug Peters, and Duane Snavely for First Team MAC. David Jones and Mike Pratzner were also named for Second Team MAC. In the Tri-State region, Perry earned first team status, Peters earned second team, and Jones and Snavely earned honorable mention. Most Valuable Player for the Jays (voted by the team) went to Tim Moyer.

With the return of the majority of the varsity team, fine JV performances, and talented freshmen recruits, the Jays look to next season with high hopes. 1985 could be the year E-town regains its title as MAC champs!

Inexperience was the key word in the vocabulary of the E-town Baseball Team this year. The Blue Jay squad had thirteen new faces and nine returning members. The young squad started out slow but came on strong at the end of the year to finish with a record of 19-15. The Blue and Gray proved to be a force to be reckoned with in the MAC Northwest as they finished tied for first place with Susquehanna, both 9-3. In the playoff game the Jays succumbed to Susquehanna by the score of 9-1.

The offense was headed by Mike Nolt (.408) and Steve Roberto (.380). Roberto also headed the Jays in almost every other offensive category. Other players with a good year at the plate were Mike Childers, Mark Clark, and Mike Gore. Co-captains, Herb Miller and Mike Nolt, headed this years pitching staff with Miller leading the team in wins and ERA (7-1, 2.50). Nolt pitched into some tough luck but fought back to a 4-4 record and a solid 2.89 ERA.

During their fifth season, the Jaygals fielded one of their youngest teams ever. With no senior members, the team began the year starting one junior, four sophomores and four freshmen. Being defending MAC Northwest champions was added pressure for the young team. The squad finished the year with it's second consecutive winning season at 13-11 overall and 3-5 in the MAC.

Carol Willoughby led the team in runs scored (20) and stolen bases (12). Bonnie Bair was leader in the power department with 23 RBI's and 8 extra base hits. Defensively, Tammy McDonald (.990), Carol Willoughby (.961), and Kendra Deavan (.958) were team leaders. On the mound, freshman Tammy McDonald anchored the staff with a 9-4 record and a 1.73 ERA.

Post-season honors came to two members: junior catcher and co-captain Carol Willoughby and sophomore shortstop Bonnie Bair were chosen as MAC all-stars.

The Blue Jay grapplers had a very difficult and disappointing season, finishing the year with an 0-19 record. Despite their unfortunate record and lack of team members, the wrestlers were high in spirit and dedication. Injuries sidelined several wrestlers throughout the season and hampered the efforts of team work. At the MACs, E-town was represented by two wrestlers: Delviscio (134) and Kane (126). Both earned fourth place in their respective weight classes. Delviscio ended the season with a record of 21-3, Kane was 9-5. Again, injuries prevented the two from vying for third place honors, whereas each forfeited his match.

Lets hope that next year the team members will get the respect and credit due them. Lets also hope that they get back on the winning track.

Homecoming 1984

A Comedy of Terrors

This year's Homecoming weekend, October 12-14, was packed with big names, big excitement, and big fun, as the theme, "A Comedy of Terrors," suggests. The activities kicked off Friday afternoon with a talent show sponsored by the junior class, featuring E-Town's own "Sigma" and the showing of two terrifying movies starring Vincent Price. On Saturday Mr. Price leapt from the horror screen and made a guest appearance at Elizabethtown, presenting a 60-minute rip-roaring lecture entitled "The Villains Still Pursue Me." Price "thrilled" the interested audience of 1700 with his Shakespearean recitations, subtle humor, and warm personality. Also on Saturday, the student midway was open for residents of the college and surrounding community to peruse the crafts displayed, enjoy the food and games, and help raise funds for various clubs and organizations. At halftime of the annual E-Town vs. Kutztown soccer game, which E-Town won, Senior elementary education major Marshelle Brozino was crowned 1984 Homecoming Queen. She was surrounded on the field by her court of eight of E-Town's finest and their escorts. To wind up the special events, a delicious and romantic dinner was served in Thompson Gymnasium.

Halloween

Election Week

On Monday, October 29, 1984, the Republican Club sponsored a trip to Millersville University. Millersville was one of many stops on President Reagan's campaign trail. About 9000 people traveled to Millersville to attend the rally. Many of these were students from the surrounding colleges and universities. E-town was not excluded from this stately event. Approximately 50 students were accompanied by Dr. W. Wesley McDonald. On Tuesday, October 30th, the Republican Club, Student Senate, and The Democratic Club sponsored a debate between the Republicans and the Democrats. The National Chairman of College Republicans, Jack Abramoff, and the National Chairman of College Democrats, Steve Girskey met in Gibble Auditorium to debate topics concerning the upcoming Presidential election.

Cultural Emphasis Week

This year Elizabethtown's annual Cultural Emphasis Week took place from October 29th to November 2nd. It focused on the theme of War and Peace in Central America. A series of lectures and films marked the week, which concluded with a two day faculty student visit to Washington, DC. The trip included briefings on Central America at the State Department and the Organization of American States. The program provided much insight and information about Central American issues to those who attended.

Volleyball Marathon

On the weekend of November 2-3, 1984, a group of 200 students played in a volleyball marathon to benefit CROP, an organization which tries to stop world hunger. CROP is the community hunger appeal of Church World Services. The event, held in Thompson Gymnasium, involved two divisions: a competitive division and a non-competitive division. Play started on Friday evening and continued through Saturday afternoon. Then the playoffs began. The annual event proved to be a huge success for all involved.

The Winning Team

Bus Stop

Under the direction of Steve Shelly and Bob Miller, Elizabethtown College Theater and Alpha Psi Omega presented Bus Stop by William Inge. The play opened November 7th in the Alumni Auditorium and was a great success. Students, friends, and faculty enjoyed performances by Linda Brecht as Elma Duckworth, a young waitress; Kristen Shuman as Grace Hoyland, the restaurant owner; Don Rowe as Will Mastus, the sheriff; and Sara Beth Ream as Cherie, a chanteuse. As the lights came up for the next act, the audience watched Glenn Scheyhing portray Dr. Gerald Tyman, a former professor; Ray Brosius as Carol, the bus driver; Rich Gonzalez as Virgil Blessing, a ranch hand and finally Pete Gialloreto as Bo Decker, a young rancher and cowboy.

The Yule Bowl

Founder's Philly Weekend

Founder's Dorm Council sponsored a Philadelphia Theme Weekend the weekend of March 8th to the 10th. Events included the showing of all three Rocky films, a "night-life" dance and a Philly style dinner in the cafeteria. The highlight of the weekend was a trip to Philadelphia on Sunday.

STEP: American Jukebox

The Student Team of Entertainers and Performers took their sell out audiences on a journey through time during this year's show "American Jukebox". The cast and crew of about seventy-five students kept the audience entertained by bringing to life some of the most popular songs from as early as the 1900's to the 1980's. Some of the highlights of the show included: Me and My Shadow by Carolyn Boshart and Bonnie Youngblood; Let's Call the Whole Thing Off by Sue Bacon and Joe Fisher; and an Andrews Sister Medley by Randi Baldwin, Nancy Evans, and Gina Mastro. Student directors of this year's production were Robin Bittenbender and Jerry Schadel. Co-directors of choreography were Susan Cupit and Margaret Lorenzen.

WWEC Theme Weekend

With the theme of "Ride The Wave Of The Eighties", WWEC kicked off its theme weekend on February 22nd to the 25th. A Listener Appreciation Night was held at Brother's Pizza to start the weekend off right. Other activities included the second annual Dream Raffle, a break dance contest and a fantastic lip sync contest that was held in Schlosser Lounge. Throughout the weekend, WWEC held its first DJ Marathon with Mark Shade and Rob Christ. They were broadcasting for a straight 64 hours.

GREASE

GREASE, "wah-wahed" its way into the audience's hearts on March 30th through April 3rd. Each night was SOLD OUT as the cast exploded with energy inside the walls of the AA.

GREASE is an agreeable musical about the very last moment in time when boys combed their hair into duck-tails, when cigarettes and wine were the makings of girl's pajama parties, and when hubcaps were thought of as objects worth snatching. "Boogy-woogy" and "shoo-bop sha wad-da wha" were still on tap as occasional obligato to the beginning urgencies of rock n roll.

Jim Hale was Danny Zuko and Linda Brecht was Sandy Dumbrowski. The Burger Palace Boys consisted of Rich Gonzalez (Kenickie), Pete Gialloredo (Sonny), Don Bogut (Doody), and Tim Sterner (Roger). Their female counterparts, the Pink Ladies, were Judy Corona (Rizzo), Ingrid Gaither (Marty), Nancy Cottrell (Frenchy), and Leslie Levison (Jan).

The supporting cast included: Jackie Frear, Alice Rossi, Michele Regn, Mark Shade, Aaron Payson, Chris Baldrige, and Greg Cooney. The Teen Angels were Sue Cupit, Sue Faatz, Tina Stricker, and Ann Alander.

The play was directed by Steven E. Shelley and staged by Bob Miller. The music directors were Greg Cooney and Suzanne Clark and the dance director was Bobbie Jo McNeille. The stage managers were Susan Pickard and Jody Riley.

Dance Marathon 1985

Friends

Thursday April 11th through Sunday April 14th the religious groups of Elizabethtown College presented the theme weekend of "Friends Are Friends Forever". Thursday's activities included a Christian booktable in the BSC lounge as well as a slide presentation of friends around campus. Friday began with HUG DAY as hugs were spread around campus by masked clowns, and it concluded with the showing of the movie "Brian's Song". Saturday was filled with the spirit of brightly colored balloons and the words of Pastor Dave Martin from the Evangelical Free Church of Hershey. This spirit continued on into the evening with a square dance and an all school dance in the Alumni Auditorium. A contemporary Christian concert was held on Sunday to bring the weekend to an end. Steve Taylor and Randy Sonehill sang to a capacity crowd in the Thompson Gym.
